

Letter of Recommendation

Copenhagen, June 17, 2017

To whom it may concern,

Vi has been at our Copenhagen studio as a design intern for eight months from October 2017 until June 2018.

Vi's has a background from the School of Visual Communication in Haderslev, Denmark. She holds a broad understanding of graphic design and are able to work across media.

Vi is hard-working and positive-minded creative. She holds great dedication to development of projects. She is persistent and holds high ambitions. Vi has experience in developing design concepts, packaging, digital and art direction. Furthermore, Vi has been collaborating with international colleagues across our different global studios.

We recommend Vi as a committed, resourceful and trustworthy colleague.

Kind regards,
